

AFRICAN FOUNDATION FOR PERSONAL GROWTH AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

The African Foundation for Personal Growth and Professional Development (AFRIPAD, INC) announces its first annual vacation essay competition for senior high school students.

Your essay should answer the question

“What does success mean to you?”

In no less than three pages, describe what represents success to you as an individual. Would you consider your life as being one of success thus far? Why, or why not.

Guidelines

Applicants should:

Be entering Senior High School (10th Grade -12th grade) in Category I, or entering University in Category II as of academic year 2009/2010 at a Ministry of Education approved high school or University in the Republic of Liberia. All submissions must be accompanied by a 2 page autobiography of the essayist

All submissions MUST be sent to essays@afripad.co.cc, or CLEARLY Handwritten or typed out and dropped off at our offices between July 1st, 2009 and January 15th 2010.

Category I

1st Prize: U$150.00

2nd Prize: U$100.00

3rd Prize: U$ 50.00

Category II

1st Prize: US$200.00

2nd Prize: US$150.00

3rd Prize: US$100.00

All submissions become the sole property of AFRIPAD, INC, and the essayist wave all rights to any and all products that may derive out of the essays.

Prizes will be awarded at awards ceremony which will be announced later.